AMO Policy Update – Draft Resolution for Municipal Recognition of September 30th as National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, and New Municipal Resource Materials

Recent discoveries of remains and unmarked graves across Western Canada have led to increased calls for all levels of government to immediately address the recommendations in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's (TRC) Calls to Action.

All Canadians and all orders of government have a role to play in reconciliation. The TRC's 94 Calls to Action are addressed primarily to the federal, provincial, and territorial governments but also to municipal governments, the corporate sector, and the broader Canadian society. They cover a wide range of government responsibilities including child welfare, education, language and culture, health, justice, commemoration, museums and archives, training for public servants, and a few specific initiatives related to reconciliation.

At the August 14th Board Meeting, the AMO Board of Directors approved two resource papers to assist municipal councils' efforts to support Truth and Reconciliation.

The first resource paper provides an overview of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's (TRC's) Calls to Action that municipal governments can address themselves.

The second resource paper provides ideas and options for what municipal leaders, councils can do to better support and engage Indigenous residents and neighbours at this time.

These AMO resource papers are meant to be organic and to be revised/updated when appropriate and more municipal resource materials are available.
