

PETITION TO THE FEDERAL ELECTORAL BOUNDARIES COMMISSION FOR ONTARIO

WHEREAS,

- The Constitution of Canada requires that federal electoral districts be reviewed after each decennial (10-year) census to reflect changes and movements in Canada's population. The current federal redistribution process began in October 2021. It is led by independent commissions working separately in each province to establish electoral boundaries. The Chief Electoral Officer is tasked with applying the representation formula found in the Constitution to determine the new allocation of seats. Elections Canada is also responsible for providing administrative and technical support to the commissions.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED CITIZENS, AND RESIDENTS OF ONTARIO, CALL UPON THE FEDERAL ELECTORAL BOUNDARIES COMMISSION FOR ONTARIO

TO,

- Keep the riding of Elgin-Middlesex-London as status quo in Federal Electoral Boundaries Redistribution 2025
